EX-HUSBAND PREVENTED FROM DOUBLE-DIPPING IN HIS FORMER WIFE'S ESTATE

ESTATE

In a recent Supreme Court case Justice McMillan ordered the making of a statutory will (court-made will) on behalf of an elderly woman, giving her estate to her children and grandchildren. The court upheld the statutory will in spite of a challenge made by the woman's ex-husband who already received $1.73 million under a family law settlement with his former wife.

JUDGMENT DEBT INSTALMENT ORDERS

Unfortunately anyone can find themselves in the situation of not being able to pay their debts when they fall due. Creditors frequently issue court proceedings to obtain judgments for the debt they are owed. The creditor has many options of enforcing the judgment debt, but what power does the debtor have to control the method of enforcement?
